

NOTICE REGARDING NONCOMPLIANCE WITH FIREARMS, FIREARM PARTS, AND AMMUNITION RELINQUISHMENT ORDERS

The judge has ordered you to turn in (“relinquish”) your firearms, firearm parts, and ammunition. Please read the enclosed information on how to turn in your firearms, firearm parts, and ammunition very carefully. The proof of relinquishment form (DV-800) is also included for your convenience.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I DO NOT TURN IN MY FIREARMS, FIREARM PARTS OR AMMUNITION?

- Pursuant to Family Code §6389(c)(4), the court will notify the District Attorney’s office and law enforcement of your noncompliance with the firearms, firearm parts, and ammunition relinquishment orders.
- Additionally, your noncompliance with this relinquishment order may be considered by the court as a factor under Family Code §3044 and Family Code §6323(e) in any determinations regarding custody and visitation of minor children.

TIMELINE REMINDER:

- You have 24 hours to turn in, store, or sell your firearms, firearm parts, and ammunition.
- You then have 48 hours to file your proof (DV-800) with the court to show that you have turned in your firearms, firearms parts, and ammunition.
- A court date has been set to check if you comply with this order and file your proof of relinquishment.

HOW DO I TURN IN MY PROOF OF RELINQUISHMENT (DV-800)?

- Have the local law enforcement agency or the federally licensed gun dealer complete your DV-800.
- File the DV-800 with the Restraining Order Window at the Family Law building located at 751 Pine Street, Martinez, CA. The window is available Mondays to Fridays from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., excluding court holidays.
- Do not place this document into the court’s drop box for filing as this may cause delays in filing.
