GUARDIANSHIP FILING INSTRUCTIONS

Once your forms are complete, follow these instructions to submit them to the court.

MAKE SURE ALL FORMS ARE DATED AND SIGNED.

- Letters of Guardianship and Temporary Guardianship must be signed by all guardians.
- In addition, above the signature lines, you will see a section in which you state when and where you executed the form.
  - a) Enter the date you signed next to the word “Date” and then fill in the city and state in which you signed next to the word “Place.”

A. TAKE THE COMPLETED PACKET TO THE PROBATE EXAMINER’S OFFICE FOR REVIEW

- 1) Put all of the original forms (no copies, the Probate Examiners will make copies), along with a sheet of paper with your telephone number and email written on it, into a large manila envelope.
  - a. Put another large self-addressed envelope with enough postage (about 5 stamps) to get your copies back into this same envelope.
  - b. Next, get another large self-addressed envelope with 3 stamps on it and write “ORDER” on the bottom corner. Also, write a request to be given three certified copies of the Letters and staple this to the envelope. Place this envelope inside of the original envelope. This is so the court can send you the Order and Letters when they are filed.
  - c. Once you have put all of the above inside the original large envelope, bring it all to the Probate Examiner’s Office in Room 210 of the Wakefield Taylor Courthouse located at 725 Court St., Martinez, CA 94553.
    - i. Or, if you are mailing your forms, mail them to Contra Costa Superior Court, Attn: Probate Examiners, 725 Court St, Martinez, CA 94553
- 2) You must bring your forms to the Probate Examiners in Room 210 of the Wakefield Taylor Courthouse located at 725 Court Street, Martinez, CA so they can review them.

- a. The Probate Examiner's Office is open from 8:00 to 11 a.m.
  - i. 8 am to 9 am: Sign up for review until slots are filled.
  - ii. 9 am to 11 am: Review
- 3) While you wait, the Probate Examiners will review the packet to make sure everything is included.
- 4) Once they review your forms, they will give them to the judge. A criminal background check will be run on all of the adults. The judge will decide whether to grant a Temporary Guardianship, if you have completed the petition for one, without a hearing (ex parte). This takes about four to seven days.
- 5) Copies of your filed paperwork will be sent to you.

B. AFTER THE DOCUMENTS ARE FILED

- 1) A hearing date will be set about 30 days away. Once you get your papers back, you need to serve the child, the child's parents, grandparents, and all siblings over the age of 12 years old. For more information, see the "Checklist for Guardianship Service" included in this packet. Service must be done by someone over the age of 18 years old other than yourself. (This means that you cannot serve the papers.) Whoever serves the papers needs to fill out a Proof of Service form. Your server can use the GC-020 if the forms were mailed or the GC-020(P) if the forms were handed to the other parties.

Do this immediately. The other parties need to be served 15 days before the hearing. The Proof of Service needs to be filed with the court five days before your court hearing.

- 2) An Investigative Report is done by court Investigators. If everything is complete by your first hearing, the judge can order the Guardianship then. However, if something is missing, the judge will continue the hearing.
- 3) About 7-10 days before your hearing, the judge will write a Tentative Ruling which says if you are missing anything. To see it, go to the court's website at cc-courts.org. At the first page, click "Online Services." Then, click "Tentative Rulings" if you want to check on what is needed at the next hearing or how to appear remotely. Or, click "Court Public Portal" to check the date, time, and courtroom of the hearing.

HOW TO FILE FOR GUARDIANSHIP (OF A PERSON AND ESTATE OR ESTATE ONLY)

WHAT IS GUARDIANSHIP OF A PERSON?

Guardianship is a court proceeding in which a judge gives someone who is not the parent custody of a child under the age of 18. A petition for guardianship of the person is filed when a minor child is living with an adult who is not the parent and the adult needs the legal right to make decisions on behalf of the child. When a guardian of the person is appointed, the guardian is awarded custody of the child and the natural parents no longer have the right to determine where the child will live or how he or she will be educated. Instead, the guardian has those rights, including the responsibility to determine medical treatment for the child.

TYPES OF GUARDIANSHIP OF A PERSON

The Court can grant two types of guardianships: (1) temporary (emergency) guardianship, which is granted for a limited period of time; and (2) a general guardianship which is granted until the minor reaches 18 years of age.

TEMPORARY (EMERGENCY) GUARDIANSHIP

The court may grant a temporary (emergency) guardianship if:

- There is an immediate and compelling need for the appointment;
- Personal notice to the parent(s) is given five (5) days in advance of the hearing, or there is good cause to waive notice to the parent(s), or they consent and waive notice for the temporary guardianship.

WHAT DO I DO WITH THE FORMS ONCE THEY ARE COMPLETED?

- Temporary (emergency) Guardianship Petition Forms

Remember that when you file a temporary (emergency) guardianship petition YOU MUST ALSO COMPLETE all of the forms for a general guardianship petition.

So, if you are petitioning for both a temporary and general guardianship, take your completed temporary and general guardianship forms to the Probate Examiners in Room 210 of the Wakefield Taylor Courthouse, 725 Court St., Martinez, CA, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., Monday through Friday. The Probate Examiners will review your documents and ask you to make whatever corrections, if any, are necessary. They will then give you further instructions relating to serving and filing the petitions.

- General Guardianship Petition Forms

If you are only filing a petition for a general guardianship, you also take your completed forms to Room 210 of the Wakefield Taylor Courthouse, 725 Court St., Martinez, CA, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., Monday through Friday. The Probate Examiners will review your documents and ask you to make whatever corrections, if any, that are necessary.

Once the review is completed, they will make two copies of your general petition. You will take the original and the two copies and file them with the Probate Clerk in Room 103, in the Wakefield Taylor Courthouse, 725 Court Street, Martinez, CA. The clerk will keep the original and one copy and return to you an endorsed filed copy which will have the hearing date when the court will hear the general guardianship petition and have your case number. You will have to serve the Notice of Hearing and Petition on all necessary parties.

HOW DO I SERVE THE GUARDIANSHIP FORMS?

- Serving the Temporary Guardianship Forms

The law requires that parents and certain relatives be given a copy of the petition for guardianship and certain other court forms you filed with the court. After all, they have to know that you are petitioning for guardianship of the minor. The legal term for this is “serving notice.” Someone else--NOT YOU--must serve the documents. You must do this right or you will have to start all over.

Personal Service-the parents (or any person having legal custody of the child) and the minor who is the subject of the petition and over the age of 12 must be personally served.

This means that someone-not you-who is over 18 years of age personally hands them a copy of: (1) Petition for Appointment of Temporary Guardian of the Person (GC-110); (2) Notice of Hearing (GC-020) at least five (5) days before the hearing.

In Contra Costa County, the court requires that only the parents and minors over 12 years of age be personally served with the temporary (emergency) guardianship forms.

- Serving the general guardianship forms

Personal Service-You must personally serve the mother and father of the minor and also the minor if the minor is over 12 years of age. You must serve the following: (1) Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (GC-210(P)); (2) Guardianship Petition-Child Information Attachment (GC-210); Notice of Hearing-Guardianship or Conservatorship (GC-020); and Order Appointing Temporary Guardianship (if granted). The general Petition must be served fifteen (15) days before the court hearing.

Service by mail-Paternal and maternal grandparents, the child’s brothers and sisters, including half-brothers and half-sisters, and any person having the care of the proposed child of the guardianship (if other than the person having legal custody) [and any spouse named in the petition may be served by mail.] This means that someone—not you-mails them a copy of the Notice of Hearing and Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person at least 15 days before the court hearing.

WHAT IF I DO NOT KNOW WHERE THE PARENTS OR RELATIVES ARE?

If you do not know where the parents or relatives are, you must make a reasonable and diligent effort to locate them. Try to find them by:

- Asking all family members, friends, acquaintances, and employers;

- Searching the real and personal property indexes in the recorder's and assessor's offices for the county where the person last lived;
- Looking in the phone book;
- Calling telephone information;
- Searching on the internet & social media websites; and
- Doing anything else you can think of to find them.

If you have done everything you can to locate the parents or relatives and you still can't locate them, you can ask the court to allow you to proceed without giving notice to those persons. To do this, fill out a Declaration Regarding Notice (Form GC-02), which is included in this packet, and file it at least five days prior to the court hearing.

WHAT DO I DO WITH THE PROOF OF SERVICE ONCE THE FORMS ARE SERVED?

If the forms were served by personal delivery to the parents or relatives, the person who served the forms fills out a Proof of Personal Service of Notice of Hearing-Guardianship form (GC-020(P)). If the forms were served by mail (not allowed for parents or minor(s) in the case), the person who served the forms fills out the Proof of Service by mail on page 2 of the Notice of Hearing form (GC-020). The Notice of Hearing must be attached to the proof of service.

After the forms have been properly filled out, signed and dated, make two copies and file the forms at least five (5) days before your hearing.

WHAT IF THE PARENTS AND RELATIVES AGREE THAT I CAN BE THE GUARDIAN, DO I STILL HAVE TO SERVE THEM?

If anyone who is required to receive notice of the guardianship petition (parents and relatives) agree that you can be the guardian, they can sign the Consent of Proposed Guardian, Nomination of Guardian, and Consent to Appointment of Guardian, and Waiver of Notice form (GC-211). You do not have to give notice to anyone who signs the consent portion of that form. If a person tells you verbally they agree you can be the guardian, but does not sign a written consent, you will still have to give the person notice.

WHAT SHOULD I DO BEFORE THE HEARING DATE?

Before your court hearing date, a probate examiner will review the paperwork you submitted and make notes for the probate judge. These notes are available 6 to 7 court days before the hearing and can be read by going to www.cc-courts.org and clicking onto Tentative Rulings in the blue panel on left side of the screen which will take you to the tentative ruling for civil/probate. Click onto probate and you can find the notes made by the probate examiners by clicking on the date of your hearing, opening the document and searching for your name or case number or the minor's name.

It is IMPORTANT that you check the ruling because if there are things that are missing and/or corrections to be made they will appear in the tentative ruling. Ordinarily the defects need to be corrected before your petition will be granted by the judge. If defects are noted, attend the hearing to assure the judge you still want the guardianship. The court may continue the hearing to a later date to allow you time to correct the defects.

If the court grants your petition for guardianship at the hearing, the court will sign the Order Appointing Guardian of Minor (GC-240) and the clerk will issue the Letters of Guardianship (GC-250). The Letters of Guardianship are evidence of your authority to act on behalf of the child.

WHAT ARE THE FEES FOR FILING A PETITION FOR GUARDIANSHIP?

The fee for filing a petition for appoint of guardian of the person only (GC-210(P)) is $225.00. Additional fees may be assessed based on each case which may include fees for conducting an investigation.

WHAT IF I CANNOT AFFORD THE FEES?

If you cannot afford the filing fee, you can request a fee waiver by completing and filing a Request to Waive Court Fees (FW-001-GC) and Order on Court Fee Wavier (FW-003-GC)<sup>3</sup>.

A court fee waiver requested by you to be appointed guardian of a person will be based on the financial condition of the proposed minor and/or his parents and not on your financial condition. However, you are responsible for completing all forms and providing all information asked for in the forms.

WHAT IS GUARDIANSHIP OF AN ESTATE?

A guardian of a minor's estate is usually necessary if the minor has substantial assets, such as an inheritance. Generally, you need a guardianship of the minor's estate to handle an inheritance even if you are the minor's parent.

WHAT FORMS DO I HAVE TO COMPLETE TO BECOME THE GUARDIAN OF THE PERSON AND ESTATE?

Petition for Guardianship of Person & Estate

If you are petitioning for a temporary guardianship and a general guardianship of the person and estate you must complete both the petitions.

However, on the Petition for Appointment of Guardian (Form GC-210) be certain that:

- You check the box for person and for estate;
- Item #1c.: this item deals with the requirement that the guardian of a minor's estate post a "bond" to insure that the estate will be reimbursed if the guardian takes improper actions, such as stealing or mishandling estate funds.
- Check Item #1c(1): if both living parents nominate you as guardian and agree to waive bond and the court does not require otherwise; (2) the estate consists of property given by another person to the minor, and that person has requested waiver of the bond, either in a written nomination of guardian or in a will.

If you do not qualify to have bond waived you will have to post a bond from a surety company. The guardians may: (1) obtain bond from personal sureties - such as friends or relatives; (2) deposit non-estate money, certificates of deposit, or certain bond with the court clerk or assign an interest in financial accounts to the court clerk; or (3) place funds from the minor's estate in a "blocked account." A blocked account requires written permission from the court before the guardian can withdraw funds or remove assets.

- Check Item # 1c(2): if you do not qualify to have bond waived. You choose to post a bond, you will then have to calculate the amount of bond needed.
- Item # 1e: This box is not usually checked this box. This box is checked only when you wish the court to allow you to undertake certain unusual or speculative actions in handling the minor's estate.
- Item #7: List the total estimated value of what the minor owns.

<sup>3</sup> These forms are not included in the packet. They have to be purchased separately.

- Item #9: This box is not usually checked.

You follow the same procedure outlined above for the filing and service of a guardianship of a person.

WHAT FORMS DO I FILE AFTER APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN OF PERSON & ESTATE OR ESTATE ONLY?

After an appointment of guardian of person and estate or estate only, the forms listed below, which follow the blue sheet, may have to be filed at a later date during the guardianship:

Legal advice – An attorney can advise you and help you prepare your inventories, accountings, and petitions to the court. If you have any questions, you should consult with an attorney.

OTHER GENERAL INFORMATION

Removal of a guardian – A guardian may be removed for specific reasons or when it is in the child's best interest. A guardian may be removed either on the court's own motion or by a petition filed by the child, a relative of the child, or any other interested person. If necessary, the court may appoint a successor guardian, or the court may return the child to a parent if that is found to be in the child's best interest.

Legal documents – For your appointment as guardian to be valid, the Order Appointing Guardian of Minor must be signed. Once the court signs the order, the guardian must take prepared Letters of Guardianship to the clerk's office where the clerk will issue the letters. Letters of Guardianship is a legal document that provides proof that you have been appointed and are serving as the guardian for a minor. You should obtain several certified copies of the Letters from the clerk. These legal documents will be of assistance to you in the performance of your duties, such as enrolling the child in school, obtaining medical care, and taking care of estate business.

Attorneys and legal resources – If you have an attorney, the attorney will advise you on your duties and responsibilities, the limits of your authority, the rights of the child, and your dealings with the court. If you have legal questions, you should consult with your attorney. Please remember that the court staff cannot give you legal advice.

If you are not represented by an attorney, you may obtain answers to your questions by contacting community resources, private publications, or your local law library.

GUARDIANSHIP PAMPHLET

This pamphlet provides basic information about probate guardianships for children. It includes general information about court procedures, the duties and responsibilities of probate guardians, and other helpful material to assist you in fulfilling the obligations of a guardian. (For information about becoming a guardian of a dependent or ward of the Juvenile Court, you should consult the separate pamphlet on that subject.) Further information about probate guardianships may be obtained from an attorney, the Probate Code, and private publications and resources. You should also consult the court or the court clerk's office regarding special procedures or rules in your county.

What is Guardianship?

Guardianship is a court process by which a person other than a parent is given custody of a child or authority over a child's property. Appointment as guardian requires the filing of a petition and approval by the court. This pamphlet will provide you with some basic information about guardianships. If the court establishes a probate guardianship, the guardianship may be:

- A guardianship of the person of the child (custody);
- A guardianship of the child's "estate" (property); or
- Both.

If the court appoints you as a guardian for a child, you will assume important duties and obligations. You will become responsible to the court. It is essential that you clearly understand your duties and responsibilities as guardian. If you have any questions, you should consult with an attorney who is qualified to advise you in these matters.

What is a Legal Guardian?

A legal guardian is an adult to whom the court has given authority and responsibility to provide care for a child, or to manage the child's assets, or both.

Who May Be Legal Guardians?

Relatives, friends of the family, or other interested persons may be considered as potential legal guardians.

Before You File the Petition

Before you file a petition for guardianship, you should consider the following:

- Is a guardianship really necessary?
- Have you considered the alternatives?
- Do the parents consent to the guardianship?
- Without parental consent, is there enough evidence for you to prove the need for a guardianship?
- Do you need legal advice or assistance?

INSURANCE

Insurance coverage – As guardian of the estate, you should make sure that there is appropriate and sufficient insurance covering the assets and risks of the estate. You should maintain the insurance in force throughout the entire period of the guardianship or until the insured asset is sold.

RECORD KEEPING AND ACCOUNTING

Records – As guardian of the estate, you must keep complete, accurate records of each financial transaction affecting the estate. The checkbook for the guardianship checking account is your indispensable tool for keeping records of income and expenditures. You should also keep receipts for all purchases.

Record keeping is critical because you will have to prepare an accounting of all money and property you have received, what you have spent, the date of each transaction, and its purpose. You will also have to be able to describe in detail what is left after you have paid the estate's expenses.

Accountings – As guardian of the estate, you must file a petition requesting that the court review and approve your accounting one year after your appointment and at least every two years after that. The court may ask that you justify some or all expenditures. You should have receipts and other documents available for the court's review, if requested.

If you do not file your accounting as required, the court will order you to do so. You may be removed as guardian for failure to file an accounting.

Format – As guardian of the estate, you must comply with all state and local rules when filing your accounting. A particular format is specified in the Probate Code, which you must follow when you present your account to the court. You should check local rules for any special local requirements.

If the child of whose estate you are the guardian has a living parent or if that child receives assets or is entitled to support from another source, you must obtain court approval before using guardianship assets for the child's support, maintenance, or education. You must file a petition or include a request for approval in the original petition, and set forth which exceptional circumstances justify any use of guardianship assets for the child's support. The court ordinarily will grant such a petition for only a limited period of time, usually not more than one year, and only for specific and limited purposes.

INVENTORY OF ESTATE PROPERTY

Locate the estate's property – As guardian of the estate, you must locate, take possession of, and protect the child's income and assets that will be administered in the estate. You must change the ownership of all assets into the guardianship estate's name. For real estate, you should record a copy of your Letters of Guardianship with the county recorder in each county where the child owns real property.

Determine the value of the property – As guardian of the estate, you must arrange to have a court-appointed referee determine the value of the estate property unless the appointment is waived by the court. You, rather than the referee, must determine the value of certain "cash items." An attorney can advise you about how to do this.

File an inventory and appraisal – As guardian of the estate, you must file an inventory and appraisal within 90 days after your appointment. You may be required to return to court 90 days after your appointment as guardian of the estate, to ensure that you have properly filed the inventory and appraisal.

Some Alternatives to Guardianship

Private agreements – You can make a private agreement with the child's parents to provide care for the child. A written agreement can be made showing that you have "custody" of the child with the parents' consent. Normally it is also beneficial to secure a medical release for emergencies, especially if a parent is not readily available. Note: The parents may revoke this type of agreement at any time.

Caregiver's Authorization Affidavit – The California Family Code allows a person who is related to a child to fill out a Caregiver's Authorization Affidavit. The affidavit normally allows that person, as a caregiver, to enroll the child in school and secure medical treatment for the child.

You may read Family Code section 6550 for details about this law. The caregiver form may be available through your local county clerk's office, through private legal publications, or from a private attorney. Note: The parents may revoke your authority or override your decision under this type of agreement at any time.

Other financial arrangements – The law allows parents to make other financial arrangements for property inherited by or given to their children. For instance, a blocked account and other protective measures can be used without the appointment of a guardian of the estate. Consultation with an attorney for these types of matters is highly recommended. Note: Some financial institutions, insurance companies, and courts require the appointment of a guardian of the estate before they will release funds on behalf of a minor.

THE PROCESS – BRIEFLY

If you decide that a child needs a probate guardianship, the first step in the process of establishing guardianship is to fill out and file the petition and other required documents with the clerk of the court. Some counties have additional "local forms" that need to be filed along with the standard forms.

Any interested party or the child, if 12 years or older, may file the petition. Specific persons must be given notice of the petition, unless excused by the court, before the court can hear the case.

The court may order that an investigation be completed before it makes its decision. If this occurs, you, the child, and any other persons deemed essential will probably be contacted about the case. The investigator will give the court a report and make a recommendation on what should occur. At that stage, the case may go to trial. The court may grant the petition or may find that there are insufficient grounds to establish a guardianship.

There is a fee for filing a guardianship petition. In addition, you may be charged a fee for a guardianship investigation. If neither you nor the child's estate can afford to pay the fees, you may request that the court waive the fee requirement. The court clerk can provide you with a fee waiver form.

GUARDIANSHIP OF THE PERSON

The probate court may appoint a guardian of the person for a child when no parent is available to meet the needs of the child because of the parents' death, incapacity, abandonment, military obligations, or other reasons.

Fundamental Responsibilities – The guardian of the person of a child has the care, custody, and control of the child. As guardian, you are responsible for providing for food, clothing, shelter, education, and all the medical and dental needs of the child. You must provide for the safety, protection, and physical and emotional growth of the child. Like a parent, you should maintain close contact with the child's school and physician.

Raising children is not always easy. You should become familiar with community resources that can assist both you and the child. You may get help and information from a support group for guardians.

Custody – As guardian of the person of the child, you have full legal and physical custody of the child and are responsible for all decisions relating to the child. The child's parents can no longer make decisions for the child while there is a guardianship. The parents' rights are suspended—not terminated—as long as a guardian is appointed for a minor. If you wish, you may ask the parents for their opinions about matters relating to the child.

You should use the child's social security number when opening estate accounts. You should never deposit estate funds in your personal account or otherwise mix them with your own funds or anyone else's funds, even for brief periods. Securities in the estate must be held in a name that shows that they are estate property and not your personal property.

Interest-bearing accounts and other investments – Except for checking accounts intended for ordinary expenses, you should place estate funds in interest-bearing accounts. You may deposit estate funds in insured accounts in federally insured financial institutions, but you should not put more than $100,000 in any single institution. You should consult with an attorney before making other kinds of investments.

Blocked accounts – A blocked account is an account with a financial institution in which money or securities are placed. No person may withdraw funds from a blocked account without the court's permission.

Depending on the amount and character of the child's property, the guardian may elect or the court may require that estate assets be placed in a blocked account. As guardian of the estate, you must follow the direction of the court and the procedures required to deposit funds in this type of account. The use of a blocked account is a safeguard and may save the estate the cost of a bond.

Other restrictions – As guardian of the estate, you will have other restrictions on your authority to deal with estate assets. Without prior court order of the court, you may not pay fees to yourself or your attorney. You may not make a gift of estate assets to anyone. You may not borrow money from the estate. You may not use estate funds to purchase real property without prior court order.

If you do not obtain the court's permission to spend estate funds, you may be compelled to reimburse the estate from your own personal funds and may be removed as guardian. You should consult with an attorney concerning the legal requirements relating to sales, leases, mortgages, and investment of estate property.

services for the child, or to follow a scheduled visitation plan between the child and the child's parents or relatives. As guardian, you must follow all court orders.

Termination of guardianship of the person – A guardianship of the person automatically ends when the child reaches the age of 18, is adopted, marries, is emancipated by court order, enters military service, or dies. If none of these events has occurred, the child, a parent, or the guardian may petition the court for termination of guardianship. But it must be shown that the guardianship is no longer necessary or that termination of the guardianship is in the child's best interest.

GUARDIANSHIP OF THE ESTATE

If the court appoints you as guardian of the child's estate, you will have additional duties and obligations. The money and other assets of the child are called the child's "estate." Appointment as guardian of a child's estate is a solemn matter. It is taken very seriously by the court. The guardian of the estate is required to manage the child's funds, collect and make an inventory of the assets, keep accurate financial records, and regularly file financial accountings with the court. The use of an attorney for legal advice in managing the estate is recommended.

MANAGING THE ESTATE

Prudent investments – As guardian of the estate, you must manage the child's assets with the care of a prudent person dealing with someone else's property. This means that you must be cautious and may not make speculative or risky investments.

Keeping estate assets separate – As guardian of the estate, you must keep the money and property of the child's estate separate from everyone else's, including your own. When you open a bank account for the estate, the account name must indicate that it is a guardianship account and not your personal account.

Education – As guardian of the person of the child, you are responsible for the child's education. You determine where the child should attend school. As the child's advocate within the school system, you should attend conferences and play an active role in the child's education. For younger children, you may want to consider enrolling the child in Head Start or other similar programs. For older children, you should consider their future educational needs such as college or a specialized school. You must assist the child in obtaining services if the child has special educational needs. You should help the child in setting and attaining his or her educational goals.

Residence – As guardian, you have the right to determine where the child lives. The child normally will live with you, but when it is necessary, you are allowed to make other arrangements if they are in the best interest of the child. You should obtain court approval before placing the child back with his or her parents.

As guardian, you do not have the right to change the child's residence to a place outside California unless you first receive the court's permission. If the court grants permission, California law requires that you establish legal guardianship in the state where the child will be living. Individual states have different rules regarding guardianships. You should seek additional information about guardianships in the state where you want the child to live.

Medical treatment – As guardian, you are responsible for meeting the medical needs of the child. In most cases, you have the authority to consent to the child's medical treatment. However, if the child is 14 years or older, surgery may not be performed on the child unless either (1) both the child and the guardian consent or (2) a court order is obtained that specifically authorizes the surgery. This holds true except in emergencies.

A guardian may not place a child involuntarily in a mental health treatment facility under a probate guardianship. A mental health conservatorship proceeding is required for such an involuntary commitment. However, the guardian may secure counseling and other necessary mental health services for the child. A variety of counseling services is available to help children. As guardian, you are expected to secure necessary services, cooperate with counselors, and maintain regular contacts with the child's treatment providers.

The law allows older and more mature children to consent to their own treatment in certain situations, such as outpatient mental health treatment, medical care related to pregnancy or sexually transmitted diseases, and drug and alcohol treatment.

Community resources – There are agencies in each county that may be helpful in meeting the specific needs of children who come from conflicted, troubled, or deprived environments. If the child has special needs, you must strive to meet those needs or secure appropriate services. Some children may have physical or learning disabilities. Other children come from abusive homes or have been victims of abuse. Counseling and other services may be necessary to assist a child who has special needs or has had unpleasant life experiences. If you need assistance, you should check with the court or with your local child protective services agency for a referral to agencies that can help you and the child.

Financial support – Even when the child has a guardian, the parents are still obligated to support the child financially. The guardian may take action to obtain child support. You may contact the local child support agency in your county to collect support from a parent. The child may also be eligible for Temporary Aid for Needy Families, TANF, formerly known as AFDC, social security benefits, Veterans Administration benefits, Indian child welfare benefits, and other public or private funds.

Visitation – The court may require that you allow visitation or contact between the child and his or her parents. The child's needs often require that the parent-child relationship be maintained, within reason. However, the court may place restrictions on the visits, such as the requirement of supervision. The court may also impose other conditions in the child's best interest.

Under most circumstances, it is best for you to have a working relationship with the parents if possible. However, in every case, you must follow all orders of the court, including those that may restrict contacts and visitation.

Driver's license – As guardian of the person, you have the authority to consent to the minor's application for a driver's license. If you consent, you will become liable for any civil damages that may result if the minor causes an accident. The law requires that anyone signing the DMV application obtain insurance to cover the minor.

Enlistment in the armed services – The guardian may consent to a minor's enlistment in the armed services. If the minor enters into active duty with the armed forces, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.

Marriage – For the minor to marry, the guardian and the court must give permission. If the minor enters a valid marriage, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.

Change of address – A guardian must notify the court in writing of any change in the address of either the child or the guardian. This includes any changes that result from the child's leaving the guardian's home or returning to the parent's home. GUARDIANSHIP OF THE <input type="checkbox"/> PERSON <input type="checkbox"/> ESTATE  OF ( Name ): _____ MINOR
DUTIES OF GUARDIAN and Acknowledgment of Receipt

DUTIES OF GUARDIAN

When you are appointed by the court as a guardian of a minor, you become an officer of the court and assume certain duties and obligations. An attorney is best qualified to advise you about these matters. You should clearly understand the information on this form. You will find additional information in the Guardianship Pamphlet (for Guardianships of Children in the Probate Court) (Form GC-205), which is available from the court.

1. GUARDIANSHIP OF THE PERSON

If the probate court appoints you as a guardian of the person for a child, you will be required to assume important duties and obligations.

- a. Fundamental responsibilities - The guardian of the person of a child has the care, custody, and control of the child. As guardian, you are responsible for providing for food, clothing, shelter, education, and all the medical and dental needs of the child. You must provide for the safety, protection, and physical and emotional growth of the child.
- b. Custody - As guardian of the person of the child, you have full legal and physical custody of the child and are responsible for all decisions relating to the child. The child's parents can no longer make decisions for the child while there is a guardianship. The parents' rights are suspended—not terminated—as long as a guardian is appointed for a minor.
- c. Education - As guardian of the person of the child, you are responsible for the child's education. You determine where the child should attend school. As the child's advocate within the school system, you should attend conferences and play an active role in the child's education. For younger children, you may want to consider enrolling the child in Head Start or other similar programs. For older children, you should consider their future educational needs such as college or a specialized school. You must assist the child in obtaining services if the child has special educational needs. You should help the child in setting and attaining his or her educational goals.
- d. Residence - As guardian, you have the right to determine where the child lives. The child will normally live with you, but when it is necessary, you are allowed to make other arrangements if it is in the best interest of the child. You should obtain court approval before placing the child back with his or her parents.

As guardian, you do not have the right to change the child's residence to a place outside of California unless you first receive the court's permission. If the court grants permission, California law requires that you establish legal guardianship in the state where the child will be living. Individual states have different rules regarding guardianships. You should seek additional information about guardianships in the state where you want the child to live.

- e. Medical treatment - As guardian, you are responsible for meeting the medical needs of the child. In most cases, you have the authority to consent to the child's medical treatment. However, if the child is 14 years or older, surgery may not be performed on the child unless either (1) both the child and the guardian consent or (2) a court order is obtained that specifically authorizes the surgery. This holds true except in emergencies. A guardian may not place a child involuntarily in a mental health treatment facility under a probate guardianship. A mental health conservatorship proceeding is required for such an involuntary commitment. However, the guardian may secure counseling and other necessary mental health services for the child. The law also allows older and more mature children to consent to their own treatment in certain situations such as outpatient mental health treatment, medical care related to pregnancy or sexually transmitted diseases, and drug and alcohol treatment.
- f. Community resources - There are agencies in each county that may be helpful in meeting the specific needs of children who come from conflicted, troubled, or deprived environments. If the child has special needs, you must strive to meet those needs or secure appropriate services.
- g. Financial support - Even when the child has a guardian, the parents are still obligated to financially support the child. The guardian may take action to obtain child support. The child may also be eligible for Temporary Aid for Needy Families, TANF (formerly known as AFDC), social security benefits, Veterans Administration benefits, Indian child welfare benefits, and other public or private funds.
- h. Visitation - The court may require that you allow visitation or contact between the child and his or her parents. The child's needs often require that the parent-child relationship be maintained, within reason. However, the court may place restrictions on the visits, such as the requirement of supervision. The court may also impose other conditions in the child's best interest.
- i. Driver's license - As guardian of the person, you have the authority to consent to the minor's application for a driver's license. If you consent, you will become liable for any civil damages that may result if the minor causes an accident. The law requires that anyone signing the DMV application obtain insurance to cover the minor.
- j. Enlistment in the armed services - The guardian may consent to a minor's enlistment in the armed services. If the minor enters into active duty with the armed forces, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.
- k. Marriage - For the minor to marry, the guardian and the court must give permission. If the minor enters a valid marriage, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.
- l. Change of address - A guardian must notify the court in writing of any change in the address of either the child or the guardian. This includes any changes that result from the child's leaving the guardian's home or returning to the parent's home. You must always obtain court permission before you move the child to another state or country.
- m. Court visitors and status reports - Some counties have a program in which "court visitors" track and review guardianships. If your county has such a program, you will be expected to cooperate with all requests of the court visitor. As guardian, you may also be required to fill out and file status reports. In all counties, you must cooperate with the court and court investigators.
- n. Misconduct of the child - A guardian, like a parent, is liable for the harm and damages caused by the willful misconduct of a child. There are special rules concerning harm caused by the use of a firearm. If you are concerned about your possible liability, you should consult an attorney.
- o. Additional responsibilities - The court may place other conditions on the guardianship or additional duties upon you, as guardian. For example, the court may require the guardian to complete counseling or parenting classes, to obtain specific services for the child, or to follow a scheduled visitation plan between the child and the child's parents or relatives. As guardian, you must follow all court orders.

GUARDIAN OF (Name):	CASE NUMBER:

- p. Termination of guardianship of the person - A guardianship of the person automatically ends when the child reaches the age of 18, is adopted, marries, is emancipated by court order, enters into active military duty, or dies. If none of these events has occurred, the child, a parent, or the guardian may petition the court for termination of guardianship. But it must be shown that the guardianship is no longer necessary or that termination of the guardianship is in the child's best interest.

2. GUARDIANSHIP OF THE ESTATE

If the court appoints you as guardian of the child's estate, you will have additional duties and obligations. The money and other assets of the child are called the child's "estate." Appointment as guardian of a child's estate is taken very seriously by the court. The guardian of the estate is required to manage the child's funds, collect and make an inventory of the assets, keep accurate financial records, and regularly file financial accountings with the court.

MANAGING THE ESTATE

- a. Prudent investments - As guardian of the estate, you must manage the child's assets with the care of a prudent person dealing with someone else's property. This means that you must be cautious and may not make speculative or risky investments.
- b. Keeping estate assets separate - As guardian of the estate, you must keep the money and property of the child's estate separate from everyone else's, including your own. When you open a bank account for the estate, the account name must indicate that it is a guardianship account and not your personal account. You should use the child's social security number when opening estate accounts. You should never deposit estate funds in your personal account or otherwise mix them with your own funds or anyone else's funds, even for brief periods. Securities in the estate must be held in a name that shows that they are estate property and not your personal property.
- c. Interest-bearing accounts and other investments - Except for checking accounts intended for ordinary expenses, you should place estate funds in interest-bearing accounts. You may deposit estate funds in insured accounts in federally insured financial institutions, but you should not put more than $100,000 in any single institution. You should consult with an attorney before making other kinds of investments.
- d. Blocked accounts - A blocked account is an account with a financial institution in which money is placed. No person may withdraw funds from a blocked account without the court's permission. Depending on the amount and character of the child's property, the guardian may elect or the court may require that estate assets be placed in a blocked account. As guardian of the estate, you must follow the directions of the court and the procedures required to deposit funds in this type of account. The use of a blocked account is a safeguard and may save the estate the cost of a bond.
- e. Other restrictions - As guardian of the estate, you will have many other restrictions on your authority to deal with estate assets. Without prior court order, you may not pay fees to yourself or your attorney. You may not make a gift of estate assets to anyone. You may not borrow money from the estate. As guardian, you may not use estate funds to purchase real property without a prior court order. If you do not obtain the court's permission to spend estate funds, you may be compelled to reimburse the estate from your own personal funds and may be removed as guardian. You should consult with an attorney concerning the legal requirements relating to sales, leases, mortgages, and investment of estate property. If the child of whose estate you are the guardian has a living parent or if that child receives assets or is entitled to support from another source, you must obtain court approval before using guardianship assets for the child's support, maintenance, or education. You must file a petition or include a request for approval in the original petition, and set forth which exceptional circumstances justify any use of guardianship assets for the child's support. The court will ordinarily grant such a petition for only a limited period of time, usually not to exceed one year, and only for specific and limited purposes.

INVENTORY OF ESTATE PROPERTY

- f. Locate the estate's property - As guardian of the estate, you must locate, take possession of, and protect the child's income and assets that will be administered in the estate. You must change the ownership of all assets into the guardianship estate's name. For real estate, you should record a copy of your Letters of Guardianship with the county recorder in each county where the child owns real property.

GUARDIAN OF (Name):  MINOR	CASE NUMBER:
----------------------------------	--------------

- g. Determine the value of the property - As guardian of the estate, you must arrange to have a court-appointed referee determine the value of the estate property unless the appointment is waived by the court. You—not the referee—must determine the value of certain "cash items." An attorney can advise you about how to do this.
- h. File an inventory and appraisal - As guardian of the estate, you must file an inventory and appraisal within 90 days after your appointment. You may be required to return to court 90 days after your appointment as guardian of the estate to ensure that you have properly filed the inventory and appraisal.

INSURANCE

- i. Insurance coverage - As guardian of the estate, you should make sure that there is appropriate and sufficient insurance covering the assets and risks of the estate. You should maintain the insurance in force throughout the entire period of the guardianship or until the insured asset is sold.

RECORD KEEPING AND ACCOUNTING

- j. Records - As guardian of the estate, you must keep complete, accurate records of each financial transaction affecting the estate. The checkbook for the guardianship checking account is essential for keeping records of income and expenditures. You should also keep receipts for all purchases. Record keeping is critical because you will have to prepare an accounting of all money and property that you have received, what you have spent, the date of each transaction, and its purpose. You will also have to be able to describe in detail what is left after you have paid the estate's expenses.
- k. Accountings - As guardian of the estate, you must file a petition requesting that the court review and approve your accounting one year after your appointment and at least every two years after that. The court may ask that you justify some or all expenditures. You should have receipts and other documents available for the court's review, if requested. If you do not file your accounting as required, the court will order you to do so. You may be removed as guardian for failure to file an accounting.
- l. Format - As guardian of the estate, you must comply with all state and local rules when filing your accounting. A particular format is specified in the Probate Code, which you must follow when you present your account to the court. You should check local rules for any special local requirements.
- m. Legal advice - An attorney can advise you and help you prepare your inventories, accountings, and petitions to the court. If you have questions, you should consult with an attorney.

3. OTHER GENERAL INFORMATION

- a. Removal of a guardian - A guardian may be removed for specific reasons or when it is in the child's best interest. A guardian may be removed either on the court's own motion or by a petition filed by the child, a relative of the child, or any other interested person. If necessary, the court may appoint a successor guardian, or the court may return the child to a parent if that is found to be in the child's best interest.
- b. Legal documents - For your appointment as guardian to be valid, the Order Appointing Guardian of Minor must be signed. Once the court signs the order, the guardian must go to the clerk's office, where Letters of Guardianship will be issued. Letters of Guardianship is a legal document that provides proof that you have been appointed and are serving as the guardian of a minor. You should obtain several certified copies of the Letters from the clerk. These legal documents will be of assistance to you in the performance of your duties, such as enrolling the child in school, obtaining medical care, and taking care of estate business.
- c. Attorneys and legal resources - If you have an attorney, the attorney will advise you on your duties and responsibilities, the limits of your authority, the rights of the child, and your dealings with the court. If you have legal questions, you should consult with your attorney. Please remember that the court staff cannot give you legal advice.
